THE EVEREST SKYDIVE TEAM

SUMAN PANDEY – Team Leader

Operating a skydiving event in the extreme and difficult mountain environment of Nepal's Everest Region is not easy. Suman secures the necessary jump permits and oversees logistics. He is the President of Explore Himalaya.

TOM NOONAN - Tandem Instructor/Examiner – Skydive Operations

Tom is a professional skydiving instructor from the US and is involved in both Civilian and Military Tandem Equipment design and test jumping. He has been with Everest Skydive since 2008 and is in charge of the tandem skydive program. He Chairs the Safety and Training Committee for the United States Parachute Association.

WENDY SMITH – Camera Flyer/Coordinator

Aerial Cinematographer and photographer, Wendy is a world record holder who has co-produced, filmed and participated in extreme skydiving movies. She has been a key part of the Everest Skydive since the beginning.

DR. RYAN JACKSON - Doctor/Tandem Master

Ryan led the medical team for the first Everest Skydive in 2008. He is a BPA qualified Tandem Master who has travelled and skydived around the world.

OMAR ALHEGELEN - Skydiver, Jumpmaster, Videographer

Omar helped to pioneer freeflying and has won every award in the category. He's completed over 14,000 skydives and is highly sought after to perform skydiving stunts for film, TV and movies.

TED ATKINS – Skydiver and Oxygen Supervisor

DEREK THOMAS – Jumpmaster and Master Rigger

In addition, the Nepalese Mountain Crew supports the Everest Skydive and is made up of Everest Summiteers, experienced mountain trekking guides and event facilitators. Highly skilled and experienced high-altitude pilots from Fishtail Air do our flying.
